Dear Levochka!

I want to let you know that the doctor has examined me today. He told me that you could pick me up from here about 11:00 or 12:00 noon. Bring me my comb and pins and also a bra and my silk blouse. I will need something for the baby.

Ask Chaika, she knows what to buy. And bring me a slip.

Levochka, I, thank G-d, am learning to walk. The first time I stood on my feet, I would have fallen if the nurse had not grasped me. But I hope to feel better soon.

My dear, you cannot even imagine how happy I am, that I am coming home. I hate the hospital. I am dreaming about the time when we'll be together at home. And as soon as you are ready, come and pick me up.

Yours...

We'll meet soon.
Don't forget to bring what I said
