New York, 9 July

Dear Fenichka!

So you always blame me for not writing to you. But I, look, I wrote to you but you don't write, so it has been three days and there is nothing for me. Write to me, dear, how you feel yourself. And Yakov–son. You write that he cries, so I already order that when he comes here, he should be a quiet, calm boy.

Dear. Write to me. You received the letter from your parents that I sent last week. And still, you have not responded to me. I sent you 15 dollars and some little things, and also a good box of chocolate. Dear, write to me regarding ___ You will try it, you will look at it. It is still very hot here, it is hard to breath. Let two more weeks pass, and then we will see, and in general I would like, I know, to talk with you where and how we can ____ But we will talk about this, things are ordinary: write to me, baby. How you feel, if you gained 1.5 pounds. And why you write so little,

Take care, Your Lev

Fenichka, I received a letter from Roma, he is not feeling well there either, I will send you his address.
