Sent to Fenya Battalin, c/o Mr. L. Battalin
64 E 102 St.
New York, America

Dated November 15, 1915

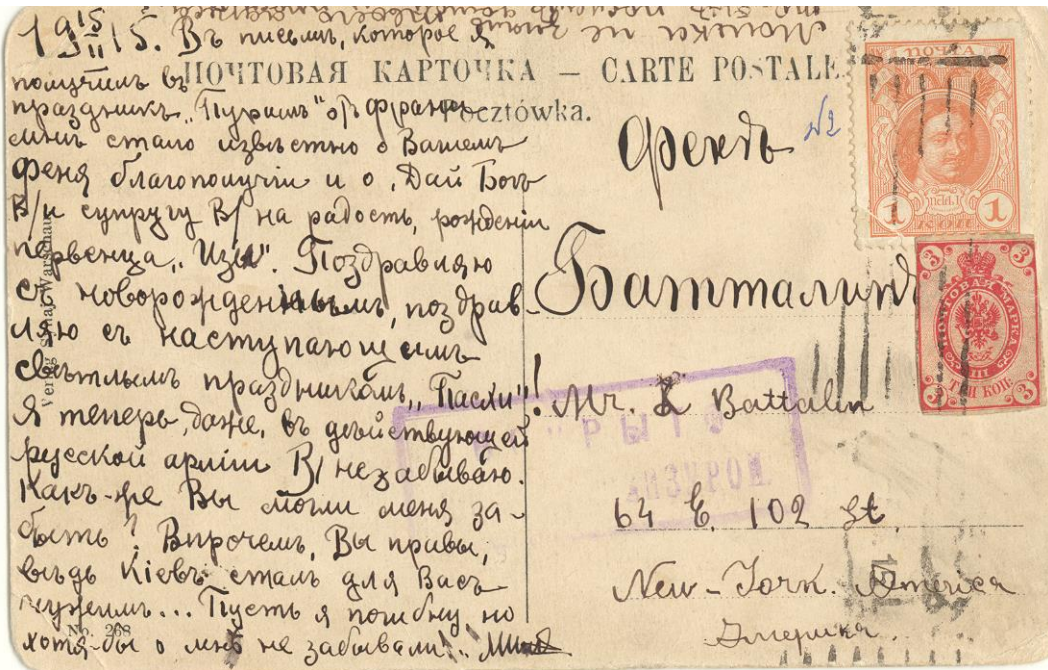

From the letter I got on Purim from Fannie, I knew that you live happily, and that God blessed you and your husband with the first boy, Issie (Izya). My congratulations with the coming Passover holiday. I am in the Russian army now and still remember you. Why did you forget me? Well, Kiev is now unknown to you. Let me perish, but don't forget me, please.

Signed, Misha

(Iszy is Jesse Battalen)
