Rosa Yanova to Fenya & Lev September 13, 1913 or later

Hi Fenya and Leva,

It's been a month already that I live in Kiev and only now am writing a letter to you. I realize it's hard, but we all were waiting to hear from you.

You know, Fenichka, I swim here, in Kiev. I know it sounds strange, but let me explain. One of the doctors opened a physiotherapy cabinet (clinic). I am taking baths there. But the course of treatment is almost over and then I go to Moscow. Fenichka, I look better now, can walk and feel myself much better. We walk with Nechamka and Franka. We'll make pictures and then send one to you.

I wish you were with me here, in Kiev. We would walk together, chatter a little.

Now, Fenichka, I want you to do something for me. As soon as you get my letter, respond to me at once. I am eager to know what are you doing there, in America, how much you earn, do you live better than in Kiev? Do you enjoy the life there?

But please answer me in details.

What is Leva doing?

Please make a photo and mail it to me.

Your friend, R. Yanova
