Sara Ronen to Fenya Kiev, November 24, 1913

Hello my dear Fenichka!

How are you doing and how's your health? I, thank God, am fine; I hope you're the same. I found out that Beilis was tried in Kiev and was acquitted. I am studying well. On Christmas, when I get my report card, I will write to you and tell you what grades I get. I don't have any special news.

Write to me and tell me how you're living in America and send me a picture (a scenic picture). Moshka always says I look like you. And everyone who comes over also says that I look like you. Avram is exactly the same as he was. He fights, doesn't behave and doesn't want to study with Nechamka. Mama would write more often, but it's hard because Nechama is busy and Franya doesn't want to, and I come home late from school and the day is short; as soon as you have dinner it's dark out and I need to do my lessons. A woman and her children live in our apartment and she's going to America. Avram wants to write you a letter, but because he found out I am writing a letter, he sends his regards.

Regards from Nechamka as well. This letter was written personally to you by me, your sister.

Sara Ronin

Greetings from me, Lyova (a different handwriting, possibly Avram?)
